

Graduate Non-Degree Student Registration Form

UMass Boston

Registration as a non-degree student does not imply acceptance to the University as a matriculated student. Application for admission to a degree program must be made through the Graduate Admissions Office. Foreign students on student visas cannot attend the University as a non-degree, full-time student. This form must be submitted to the Bursar's Office by the published Add/Drop Deadline with full payment. Registration for courses constitutes a contract with the University and all financial obligations must be met.
